

Call for Applications: Programme Coordinators

- Are you aged between 18 and 35?
- Are you passionate about human rights education, non formal education and youth work?
- Do you want to support young ecumenical leaders in developing new activism skills?
- Do you enjoy working in an international and multicultural team?
- Do you want to test or develop your skills in managing projects and writing proposals?

We are looking for two Programme Coordinators!

The applications for the position of Programme Coordinator are now open. The Programme Coordinator is responsible for organizing all of the current and future events of WSCF-Europe. We are currently aiming to find one or two persons for the position of Programme Coordinator who can serve until October 2025, until the end of the current period of the European Regional Committee of WSCF-Europe.

Who we are

The World Student Christian Federation (WSCF) is one of oldest faith-based youth organisations in the world. Since 1895, WSCF has played a key role in championing human rights, democratic participation and equitable societies on behalf of and with thousands of young people across the world. Today, WSCF-E is an umbrella organization for 30 Student Christian Movements in 22 countries in geographical Europe. While WSCF-Europe maintains its close ties with the global office as well as with other regional bodies, its strategic objectives and priorities are developed in line with the needs and challenges of its member movements in Europe.

Our work

Empowering and inspiring of Christian youth to serve humanity within and beyond their communities has always been the cornerstone of WSCF-Europe. Being part of a global fellowship of Student Christian Movements, WSCF-Europe shares its global mission of putting our faith into action to contribute to the renewal of the ecumenical movement and to promote justice and peace in the world.

WSCF-Europe aims to translate its faith-based values of love, respect and unity in serving the most deprived and vulnerable communities. WSCF-Europe's activities aim to contribute to a just and peaceful society which respects the dignity and rights of all.

What we are looking for

We are looking for 1 or 2 young people to join the European Regional Committee (ERC) as Program Coordinators.

The ERC is the governing body of WSCF and includes young people from all over Europe who are passionate about human rights, advocacy, and social and economic justice through the lenses of Christianity.

ERC members are volunteers, and remain in their positions for two years.

The current term will end on 31 October 2025.

The work of the Programme Coordinator include the following tasks:

- Develop topics/themes for programmes (conferences, campaigns and other events), based on the recommendations of the thematic working groups;
- Coordinate programme planning and management (including tasks such as: recruiting event team members, chairing preparatory committee meetings, preparing online communications, reporting after events, organizing follow-up activities, etc.);
- Maintain contact with, and coordinate the work of, the thematic working groups formed at the ERA, drawing on their input, inspiration and support
- Assist with fundraising for programmes.

To apply, please fill-in this application form by 16th of February 2024.

If you have any questions about the role or the application, please contact us at wscf@wscf-europe.org.
